- The Bolivian molice are reported to be very anxious to have Vicente Ordoyo leave the country. They located him and settled his altercation with Walter Villagorez withou' resort to legal procedure, in order to facilitate his departure. In an interview with the Minister of Covernment, however, Ordoyo has expected fear about going back to Argentina. He stated that the arms he had reered for sale are now in the hands of his confederates in Paraguay, and that with police permission, he would shortly depart for Paraguay, going by way of Brazil.
- 2. Before to could leave Bolivia, however, Ordoyo became involved in the fatal beating of a Bolivian boy, Carlos Gomez Lavadenz. On 28 July, Ordoyo, together with Mario Goldman and (fnu) Marin, a clerk in the Argentine Embassy, were go bling in the home of the boy's nother. An argument arose between Coldment and Marin, in which Ordoyo joined. In the course of the fight, the boy was badly beaten and died two days later. The beating was allegedly administered by Coldman, but Ordoyo and Marin were held as witnesses. Ordoyo will shortly be released by the authorities instabilizating this case, who hope he can then make his departure from La Paz.
